

26th January 2022

Chinese New Year Celebrations

Dear Parents and Carers

Next Week in Nursery class, the children will be learning about Chinese New Year. This day will be celebrated on Tuesday 1st February. The children will be accessing fun activities, Chinese food tasting and will be involved in special dragon dancing.

Red is China's good luck colour. Please can your child come dressed in Red on this day.

Many thanks for your continued support,

Early Years Team

26th January 2022

Chinese New Year Celebrations

Dear Parents and Carers

Next Week in Nursery class, the children will be learning about Chinese New Year. This day will be celebrated on Tuesday 1st February. The children will be accessing fun activities, Chinese food tasting and will be involved in special dragon dancing.

Red is China's good luck colour. Please can your child come dressed in Red on this day.

Many thanks for your continued support,

Early Years Team

26th January 2022

Chinese New Year Celebrations

Dear Parents and Carers

Next Week in Reception class, the children will be learning about Chinese New Year. This day will be celebrated on Tuesday 1st February. The children will be accessing fun activities, Chinese food tasting and will be involved in special dragon dancing.

Red is China's good luck colour. Please can your child come dressed in Red on this day.

Many thanks for your continued support,

Early Years Team

26th January 2022

Chinese New Year Celebrations

Dear Parents and Carers

Next Week in Reception class, the children will be learning about Chinese New Year. This day will be celebrated on Tuesday 1st February. The children will be accessing fun activities, Chinese food tasting and will be involved in special dragon dancing.

Red is China's good luck colour. Please can your child come dressed in Red on this day.

Many thanks for your continued support,

Early Years Team

